

Music Explorers – Try With Confidence 2023

Starting school is a big step and many parents are understandably unsure about signing their children up for extracurricular activities. To help you make a decision about how well your child is able to cope with classes, we have set up this “Try With Confidence” scheme for children joining our Music Explorers classes in September 2023.

Definitions:

“existing pupils”: children that have attended Vivace Music School classes in the past, whether continuously or intermittently

“new pupils”: children that have not attended Vivace Music School classes in the past

- Existing pupils: Sign your child up for a space in one of our Music Explorers classes before the end of term (i.e. before the end of the Hampshire summer term, 21st of July 2023) and pay your £15 deposit
- New pupils: Contact us to reserve your space by the 8th of September 2023
- Attend the first three sessions of the term
- Decide after the third session whether you plan to continue
- Existing pupils: If you decide not to continue, you will get your deposit back
- New pupils: You will only be charged for these sessions if you decide to continue

The following terms and conditions apply to both existing and new pupils (unless otherwise stated):

1. This offer applies to Music Explorers classes starting in September 2023 only; deposits are non-refundable for all other classes
2. This offer may not be used in conjunction with any other offers or discounts
3. Existing Pupils: Registration and payment of the deposit must have been received on or before the 21st of July 2023
New Pupils: Booking must have been received by 8th of September 2023
4. Existing Pupils: Registered children must attend the first three classes, or parents/ carers must send an apology in writing (email) for non-attendance prior to the missed class. NB: Deposits will not be refunded for non-attendance without apology
5. Invoices for the balance due for the term will be issued after the third session (week beginning 2 October 2023) for children that continue with classes. Existing Pupils: full payment for all termly sessions minus deposit already paid will be due.
New Pupils: payment for all termly sessions will be due.
6. Existing Pupils: Deposits will be refunded for children not continuing with classes. Bank details must be received by Vivace Music School by the 6th of October 2023 from parents wishing to reclaim their deposit. Deposits for which bank details are received after this date become non-refundable.
